

CSLSA 2017 Junior Lifeguard Contest Rules

The contest will focus on creating a logo for the Junior Guard component of the California Surf Lifesaving Association. Participants are encouraged to create a logo that they feel best represents the core values of the JG experience.

- Entries may be produced digitally, painted, or drawn.
- There must be a physical copy submitted for review
- All entrants must be registered USLA members in good standing with their program.
- Any idea or rendering submitted becomes the property of the CSLSA.
- All works must be original work submitted by the JG submitting said work.
- All entries must be submitted by the opening of the JG committee meeting at the fall meeting location.

A $400 scholarship will be awarded to the winning entry. Selection of the top USLA JG winner will be done by participating members of the CSLSA Junior Guard Committee at the CSLSA Fall meeting.

Every submission must include the following information: Junior Lifeguard's name, age, JG Program, JG program coordinators name, email address, and phone number.
